- You will keep using the same online services of UniPD for the didactic material, exam registration, grades etc.
- The procedures related to the tuition fees, scholarships and any other benefit offered by the right of higher education are the same in place in Padua

4. Lectures

- Lectures are held with students attending in person, meaning that lectures are not streamed nor recorded
- The didactic material of each course will be also available on Virtuale: <https://virtuale.unibo.it>: you can find the direct link on the webpage of the course (example).
- Wait for the first classes so that Professors will give you instructions on what and when find the didactic material (if any)
- Lectures are organised in two semesters:
 - 1° semester: from late September to early January
 - 2° semester: from late February to early June

5. Exams

- Exams are held at the end of the semesters
 - Minimum of six exam dates per year at an interval of at least 15 days between one and the next
 - The University Teaching Regulations set no restrictions for students who have failed exams.
 - The final examination may be a written, oral or practical test. The final examination may take place individually or in groups. A group examination or test must assure the recognition and possibility to evaluate each candidate's contribution
- the exams involve an evaluation which is expressed as a grade of out of 30, as duly registered on an electronic record-book. An exam is deemed to be passed successfully if the final grade is equal to or higher than 18/30. In the event of a full grade (30/30), the Examination Board may grant honours (lode).
